

Detroit Office
47689 E. Anchor Court
Plymouth, MI 48170
Direct: 734-454-1200
Fax: 734-454-1226

Jamian McElroy & Hamlin, LLC Announces Charles G. Yessaian as Director of Government Affairs

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

June 3, 2009 Jamian McElroy & Hamlin, LLC (JMH) has engaged Charles G. Yessaian as Director of Government Affairs. In this position, Mr. Yessaian's responsibilities will include maintaining and developing new relationships with Congress, regulatory agencies and other organizations to further assist the clients of JMH.

Charles has extensive experience at both the federal and state levels of government. Most recently, Mr. Yessaian served as Legislative Director for Congressman Joseph Schwarz running day to day operations in his Washington, D.C. office and coordinating efforts of the Congressman's three Congressional Committees Armed Services, Science & Technology, and Agriculture. Prior to working for Congressman Schwarz, Charles served in the office of Congressman Frederick Upton as a Legislative Assistant. In that position he acted as the liaison with the Education & The Workforce Committee and advised the Congressman on issues relation to Education, Labor, Agriculture, Insurance, and Federal Employee Issues.

"I am extremely excited to join the diverse and experienced firm of Jamian McElroy & Hamlin, LLC. I look forward to utilizing my abilities to help the firm grow and build upon an already solid foundation. I am looking forward to overseeing and running the Washington, D.C. office."

Mr. Yessaian is a graduate of Lewis University in Romeoville, Illinois where he majored in History. Charles has a Master of Arts in Government degree from Johns Hopkins University.

Jamian McElroy & Hamlin, LLC creates value for clients through special business development projects, government advocacy and operational consulting services with bases of operation in Washington DC, Detroit, Miami, and San Francisco. The firm of specializes in Transportation & Infrastructure, Domestic & International Security, Environmental and Healthcare channels.

For more information please contact Peter McElroy at 734-454-1200

#